Law

Law is a system of rules that are created and enforced through social or governmental institutions to regulate conduct, although its precise definition is a matter of longstanding debate. State-enforced laws can be made by a collective legislature or by a single legislator, resulting in statutes, by the executive through decrees and regulations, or established by judges through precedent, normally in common law jurisdictions like the USA.

- Book: Foundations of Business Law and the Legal Environment
- Book: The Legal and Ethical Environment of Business
Book: Business Law I Essentials (OpenStax)

- Fundamentals of Business Law (Randall et al.)

- Book: Law of Commercial Transactions

- Book: Introduction to Contracts, Sales and Product Liability
• Book: Introduction to the American Criminal Justice System (Burke et al.)

• Book: Introduction to Criminal Law

• Book: Marine Law and Policy for Scientists and Managers (Campbell)

• Book: Law for Entrepreneurs
- Book: Introduction to the Law of Property, Estate Planning and Insurance

- Book: Legal Aspects of Marketing and Sales

- Book: Legal Contexts of Education (Gerry)

- Introduction to Intellectual Property (OpenStax)

Thumbnail: Image used with permission (CC0 1.0; Pixabay).